Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Schademan is considered to be in violation of his supervised release conditions by being cited for fourth degree assault on December 27, 2022, per Yakima County Sheriff's Office incident number 22C20722.

On December 27, 2022, Deputy Sifuentes was on patrol for the Yakima County Sheriff's Office when dispatched to 15941 Yakima Valley Highway (YVH), Zillah, Washington, in reference to a domestic incident. Call information stated the reporting party, GS, advised of an assault by his son, Michael Schademan. GS declined medical attention. Both GS and Michael live at this location, no weapons were involved and Mr. Schademan left the residence in a Ford Ranger.

bruises under both of GS's eyelids that appeared to be fresh. GS was asked if he needed medical assistance, he stated he did not. GS was asked if he could tell the deputy what happened and how he got his injuries. GS stated Mr. Schademan has been using meth, was acting out earlier, and the two had an argument over Mr. Schademan trying to act like "he is all bad" (tough guy). GS stated the argument turned physical and he was punched numerous times in the face by Mr. Schademan. GS stated Mr. Schademan did not make any threats to him and he tried to defend himself. GS stated after the assault, Mr. Schademan took off.

GS was asked if he was willing to write a voluntary statement on what occurred, he stated "no." GS was asked if he was willing to fill out a domestic violence (DV) packet, he stated "no." GS was asked if he wanted to pursue charges, he stated "no." GS was asked if he wanted DV resources, he stated he did not. GS stated he only wanted Mr. Schademan to get help.

A sector citation was completed for Mr. Schademan for fourth degree assault. The report was to be forwarded to the prosecutor's office for review of charges of fourth degree assault on Mr. Schademan. On January 20, 2023, the charge of fourth degree assault domestic violence was filed in Yakima District Court, case number 2A0711571.

On January 27, 2023, a probable cause hearing was held and probable cause was established. On February 6, 2023, an arraignment hearing for Mr. Schademan was scheduled for February 21, 2023.

You must contribute to the cost of treatment according to your ability to pay. You must allow full reciprocal disclosure between the supervising officer and treatment provider.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Schademan is considered to be in violation of his supervised release conditions by failing to complete a substance abuse treatment program since February 16, 2023.

On January 27, 2023, this officer spoke with Mr. Schademan's treatment counselor at Innovation Resource Center (Innovation), and the counselor reported that Mr. Schademan was in noncompliance with his treatment plan as he missed several of his weekly groups. The counselor stated Mr. Schademan has not made contact with Innovation, and the counselor has made multiple attempts to contact Mr. Schademan with no success. The counselor stated Mr. Schademan needed to make contact with Innovation immediately or his file would be closed.

On February 6, 2023, this officer spoke with Mr. Schademan and he was instructed to contact his counselor at Innovation as soon as possible. Mr. Schademan committed to contacting his counselor at Innovation the following day.

On February 16, 2023, this officer contacted Mr. Schademan's counselor at Innovation. The counselor stated Mr. Schademan failed to make contact with their agency and his file would be closed on this same date.

Special Condition #16: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Schademan is considered to be in violation of his supervised release conditions by failing to submit to random urinalysis (UA) testing at Merit Resource Services (Merit) on January 11, 2023, and February 3, 2023.

On March 1, 2021, the substance abuse testing instructions were reviewed with Mr. Schademan. He acknowledged his understanding of the testing program. On March 2, 2021, he was instructed to call the Merit color line system for the color brown. On October 1, 2021, Mr. Schademan was placed on color green due to his compliance. When his color green was called, he was to report to Merit and submit to a drug screen.

On January 12, 2023, Merit reported Mr. Schademan failed to show up for random UA testing on January 11, 2023. On February 6, 2023, Merit reported Mr. Schademan failed to show up for random UA testing on February 3, 2023.
